

ARTS COUNCIL FACT

The Arts contributed $763.6 billion to the U.S. economy in 2015, 4.2 percent of GDP and counted 4.9 million workers, who earned $372 billion in total compensation.

WYOMING ARTS COUNCIL ANNOUNCES FELLOWSHIP RECIPIENTS

Featured News | July 21, 2021

The Wyoming Arts Council is pleased to announce the recipients of this year's Fellowships in Visual Arts, Creative Writing, Performing Arts, and the Native Art Fellowship.

The 2022 Wyoming Arts Council Fellowship Recipients. Top row L-R DaleRae Green, Kyle Reed, Taylor Gordon, Andrew Munz Middle row L-R Tris Munsick, Aaron Wood (photo courtesy of J. Martin Media), Al Hubbard, Lori Howe Bottom row L-R Colleen Friday, Andrew Wheelock, Tina Welling.

Visual Arts Fellowship recipients are: Al Hubbard of Riverton, DaleRae Green of Fort Washakie, and Kyle Reed of Laramie. An honorable mention was awarded to Paul Taylor of Laramie.

Creative Writing Fellowship recipients are: Lori Howe of Laramie in Poetry, Taylor Gordon of Laramie in Fiction, and Tina Welling of Jackson in Creative Nonfiction. An honorable mention was given to Rod Miller of Cheyenne in the poetry category.

Performing Arts Fellowship recipients in Music are: Andrew Wheelock of Laramie and Tris Munsick of Sheridan. Honorable mentions were awarded to Dave Shaul of Cheyenne and Bunny Sings Wolf of Devils Tower.

Performing Arts Fellowship recipients in Theatre and Dance are: Aaron Wood of Casper and Andrew Munz of Jackson. Honorable mentions were awarded to Francesca Romo of Jackson and Gina Patterson of Jackson.

The inaugural Native Art Fellowship recipient is: Colleen Friday of Arapahoe. An honorable mention was awarded to Marcus Dewey of Arapahoe.

Fellowships are merit based awards to selected Wyoming artists based on their submitted portfolio of work that reflects serious and exceptional artistic investigation. Recipients each receive a $3,000 award and the opportunity to share their work with the community through support from the Wyoming Arts Council.

Submissions are juried anonymously by jurors from outside the state with extensive backgrounds in each artistic area. The jurors for this year's Fellowships were Louise Mortarano and Tasha Kubesh for Visual Arts; Kali Fajardo-Anstine, Kailyn McCord, and Jessica Jacobs for Creative Writing; Kate Jopson and Kenzi Everitt for Performing Arts; and Adrienne Benjamin and Molina Parker for Native Art.

For more information on this program and details on each recipient please visit www.wyomingartscouncil.org or contact Taylor Craig at 307-274-6673 or taylor.craig@wyo.gov.

SORT By Category | By Month | By Year

WAC ACCESSIBILITY STATEMENT

The Wyoming Arts Council believes that experiencing the arts should be accessible for all, including people with mental and/or physical disabilities, older adults, military/veterans, people living in institutions and those who lack access to the arts due to geographic isolation, cultural difference and economic hardship.

CULTURAL RESOURCES

- Historic Preservation Office
 - State Archives
 - State Museum
 - Archaeologists Office
 - Cultural Trust Fund
- PARK SITES & TRAILS
- State Parks & Historic Sites
 - Outdoor Recreation
 - Wyoming Trails Program

STAY IN TOUCH

STATE OF WYOMING

- Governors Office
- Privacy Policy
- Copyright © State of WY
- Other State Agencies
- Citizen
- Business
- Government
- Visitor

CONTACT

JOIN US

- Facebook
- Twitter
- RSS Feed
- YouTube

Cancel